

Meeting Minutes

May 27, 2008

Rhonda Douglass called the meeting to order at 7:45pm. She welcomed the members and thanked Sandi Wheeler for organizing and planning the Potluck Dinner of the evening.

We had Show and Tell from the following members: Ed Noyce, Connie Akers, Audrey Legatowicz, Karen Chaussebel, Cassie Curnutt, Peggy Tajchman, Jo Appleton, Suzanne Morgan, Deborah Boschert, and Sara Moe.

Ed Noyce announced that Diane Tuckman, of Silk Painters International, will be in Dallas the end of March 2009 to teach two 2-day workshops on silk painting.

Jo Appleton, Membership Chair, reminded members to renew their memberships. Only half the members have sent checks.

Deborah Boschert announced plans for the next two programs: Marla Legvold will present a demo workshop on her 3-D animals then give a program on wearable art in June. Carol Morrissey will present the July program: Inks, Dyes, and Paints, Oh My!

Sara Moe will be teaching her embellisher workshop in San Antonio on July 12th. Machines will be provided and will be for sale from Babylock.

Announcements:

Michelle announced that the TX Museum of Fibers Arts held its second annual exhibit in Austin. Sally Middleton won the second place award; Deborah Boschert, Lu Peters, Linda Thiemann, Dot Clarke, and Mary Ruth Smith were also juried into the exhibit. She read a thank you note from last month's speaker, Deanna Wood. Michelle encouraged all members to contribute to the newsletter by sending information to: newsletter@dallasfiberartists.org

Rhonda thanked her Board members and installed the new officers. Michelle introduced the new Board members and presented gifts of appreciation to Rhonda, Glenda Hurley, Brenda Arrington, and special thanks for extraordinary service to Diana Pease and Delores Lyon. New officers are:

President Michelle Knoerzer
Vice President Sara Moe
Treasurer Suzanne Morgan
Secretary Lu Peters
Programs Deborah Boschert
Newsletter Sherrie Tootle and Mary Schulte
Show Chair Ed Noyce
State Federation Reps Rhonda Douglass and Jack Brockette

New Business:

Michelle introduced new changes to the By-Laws which renamed the officers from Vice Presidents to Membership, Newsletter, etc. The changes were unanimously approved. She passed out benefit cards for Tom Thumb Stores which will yield 1% of a purchase to DAFA and will follow up on getting the information on the new Kroger benefit card.

Program:

Deborah hosted the ART SWAP which included work by 22 members who described their creative process and the materials they used in making their unique array of fiber art.

It was announced that Traci Hutton has been nominated for a Daytime Emmy Award for Costume Design for the television show Barney.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:15pm

Respectfully Submitted,
Lu Peters, Secretary

